“Take a moment to stop, look, feel, breath...” – Danielle Wilkinson

From July 3rd through July 26th, Yoga Bohemia studio will transform to “Gallery Bohemia” with the launch of a professional art exhibit, curated by Elizabeth Burke Beaty of Burke Art Advisory, titled Photographic Mandalas from Nature by local artist and high school art teacher, Danielle Wilkinson.

Gallery Bohemia (a.k.a. Yoga Bohemia) is located at 2 East 20th Street, Long Beach Township, NJ 08008.

Join us for the opening on July 3rd, from 6-8:30pm to view these mesmerizing images and meet the artist. Then stay for food, fun and live music to celebrate Yoga Bohemia’s 1 year anniversary!

About the Exhibit: Photography is about capturing the moment. Meditation is about being in the moment. Spirituality is about being grateful for the moment. This is the essence behind Danielle’s photographic mandalas, which are appropriated from the artist’s images of her natural surroundings (including Long Beach Island and other parts of New Jersey).

The mandala is an ancient tool for meditation; stilling the mind, body and spirit. It is an image that is thought to profoundly affect the inner self. It’s sacred geometry is known to generate a feeling of peace and serenity. The intricate circular patterns are also known to have the ability to focus the mind of the viewer and/or creator. Mandalas have been created in many cultures throughout history and are still being created today.

Photographic Mandalas from Nature will be on display at Gallery Bohemia from July 3 to July 26, 2015 with an opening reception on July 3rd from 6-8:30pm. Many mandala inspired yoga practices and meditations will occur throughout the weeks of the exhibition.
